INTRODUCTION

ALL YOUR PARTY/WEDDING PLANNING NEEDS IN ONE PLACE

THE ONLY TOOL YOU REQUIRE TO ORGANISE

Auspicious is a digital tool that includes all of the important details related to the wedding or events that your guests need to know about. Each wedding or event website is totally unique as they are customised to reflect you and your family.

It is based on a template that you can personalise according to your requirements and preferences. It can be accessed from all internet devices, from your desktop to your mobile phone.

Time is precious. It will do the hard work for you and save you valuable time. The difficulties inherent in the planning of any activity are mainly related to the amount of time the development and implementation take, and that is an indisputable fact! Besides, it will achieve more, better and faster.

It will not only think about enjoying themselves, but also that their guests spend an unforgettable day. We know that it is priority to you is that the people who are going to share that special day with you feel comfortable and have a lot of fun. To do so, we need to consider the needs of everyone, either the elderly or the little ones, ensuring they enjoy every moment to the full, just like you. From choosing the best entertainment for the little ones, to preventing your ladies' heels from sinking into the lawn, and that each guest is given your wedding favour or that cone filled with rice / petals to throw over the happy couple as they leave the church. A good wedding planner knows every guest counts, so they will do everything in their power to make everyone feel special and cared for.

Feasibility of Project

As we know event planning is a good job if you are looking at how to start your own business. This is because you get expressions of creativity within you that give you a sense of contentment from within along with the financial gain that comes with it. To excel in this area, you must be passionate about business and like everything associated with weddings, being a wedding planner requires that you be involved in helping couples plan their wedding and everything that surrounds the wedding day. You are solely responsible for the success of their wedding event and you have to ensure that you please everyone that is involved with the wedding by providing them with first-class services.

Business requires wedding planning that you pay close attention to details, have good organizational skills, patience, and at the head level to deal with emotional problems that arise before and on the wedding day on the part of the people you have to deal with as weddings can be very emotional to people Concerned. If you like events, parties and weddings, you should consider starting a business if you are thinking about the type of business you want to do.

FUTURE SCOPE:

India is the land of festivals. People here like to gather at the slightest pretext and celebrate. Our festive occasions and the way we celebrate them are larger than life, and one of the most important occasions for a person, and even more so for his/her family, at least in India is marriage. It is a huge affair for everyone involved. This is the time of coming together of friends, family, acquaintances, strangers, and even rivals. Everyone is welcome to the grand spectacle that is a wedding in India. Weddings happen at every economic scale here. They may start from a wedding in a small town to extravagant destination weddings in India or abroad. Wedding planners cater to a significant portion of these weddings. The wedding planning market and careers associated with it are growing day by day as it is comparatively still in its initial stage and set to grow exponentially.
